Date: 21-22 April, 2008

Venue: Tehran, Islamic Republic of Iran.

List of participants is attached.

Opening the discussion, Mr. Javed Sadiq Malik, President, Asian Ombudsman Association (AOA), welcomed the participants to the 10th Board of Directors meeting. He thanked the General Inspection Organization of Iran for hosting the meeting. In his introductory remarks, he welcomed the Chief Ombudsman of Thailand as a new member of the Board, as well as greeting the Minister of Supervision of China and Chairman ACRC of Korea, who had recently assumed office. Condolences were offered on the death of Mr. Li Lixiyun, Minister of Supervision, and People's Republic of China.

Agenda Item No. 1

Approval of the minutes of the last (9th) meeting of the Board of Directors held at Hanoi, Socialist Republic of Vietnam, on 25th April, 2007.

Decision:

The minutes were approved.

Agenda Item No. 2

Approval of agenda for the present (10th) annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the AOA.

Decision:

Agenda proposed by the AOA Secretariat was approved for discussion.

Agenda Item No. 3

Implementation Report on decisions of the last (9th) meeting of the Board of Directors.

The Executive Secretary presented implementation status/ progress on the decisions taken in the last meeting of the Board.

The Board of Directors reviewed the progress in detail. The following points came up for discussion:

- i) No action was required on agenda items No.1, 2, 3 & 7
- ii) On agenda items no. 5,8,10 &13 the Board noted the position and no further action was asked for.
- iii) Agenda items No. 4, 6, 11 &13 there of were listed as separate agenda items of the current meeting.

Agenda Item No. 4

Report of the President on the activities of the Association in terms of clause 5-5(i) of the Code of Conduct of Business of the AOA.

As per clause 5-5 (i) of the Code of Conduct of Business of the AOA, an annual report on the activities of the Association including a report of the activities of the AOA Secretariat was presented by the President before the Board.

2. The Report covered all the activities undertaken during the year 2007 and highlighted achievements such as the upgradation of the AOA website; revamping of the bi-annual news bulletin; establishment of the AOA library; focused approach towards knowledge management, including the development of a proposal for establishing a Knowledge Management Resource Centre and the development of various knowledge products. The report also mentioned that the IOI in its last Board's meeting held at Sydney, Australia allocated CD10,000 for Asian Region, to work for the promotion of Ombudsmanship.

3. The Board of Directors reviewed the progress in detail and expressed its satisfaction on achievements and activities of the Association during the year.

Agenda Item No. 5

Consideration of the status/ progress on (I) Research Studies and (II) Short Studies to be carried out by the member institutions.

I. Research Studies:

During the 9th annual meeting of the Board of Directors, it was decided that all members may complete their research projects before the 10th (current) annual meeting of the Board.

The following position emerged:-

- i) The Office of the Ombudsman of Hong Kong, completed the study on “Administrative and Financial Arrangements in Ombudsman Offices”.
- ii) First draft of the study on “The Role of Civil Society in Promotion of Ombudsmanship” by Wafaqi Mohtasib, Pakistan has been posted on the AOA website for comments and feedback by the members.
- iii) The General Inspection Organization, Islamic Republic of Iran, gave a comprehensive presentation to the Board on salient features of their research project “Role of the Ombudsman in Protection of Citizen’s Rights” and informed that it will be completed and published before December 2008. The main theme of the project was a model law for the institution of the Ombudsman covering various dimensions and aspects of its functioning.
- iv) Representative of Anti Corruption and Civil Rights Commission, Republic of Korea, informed that the interim report of their research study on “Conflict Management through Alternative Dispute Resolution” will be released by December 2008. He informed that the project covers a comparative study of different countries.
- v) Representative of Administrative Evaluation Bureau, Japan, informed that a private institution completed the research on the topic “Ombudsman an Aid to Good Governance” but since it was not of requisite quality, it was decided to re-launch the research study, which will be completed as soon as possible.
- vi) Other members informed that they are still working on their research projects.

Decision:

Members were requested to complete their research studies by the end of year 2008.

II. Short Studies:

In the light of the decision of the 9th Board meeting, so far nine short studies have been prepared by the Office of the Wafaqi Mohtasib (Ombudsman) and have been posted on the AOA website. Studies conducted by other members are awaited.

Decision:

Members were requested to complete their short studies as soon as possible.

III. Fact Sheets:

The members were requested to prepare fact sheets regarding their institutions as per template provided to them, covering legal frame work, jurisdiction, powers and investigative techniques used by them. It was pointed out that most of the fact sheets received were incomplete and required further input.

Decision:

Members were requested to complete their fact sheets by July, 2008, for posting on the AOA website.

Agenda Item No. 6

Progress on the Establishment of the Knowledge Management Resource Centre through donor funding.

During the 9th annual meeting of the Board of Directors, it was agreed in principle to establish a Knowledge Management Resource Centre (KMRC) in the AOA Secretariat through donor funding. The President AOA informed the Board that the Asian Development Bank had agreed in principle to finance the proposed activities through a Regional TA (RETA). Processing of the RETA has already been initiated and final approval for the RETA will likely be obtained by end of April, 2008.

2. The Thai representative suggested the development of key performance indicators for the proposed centre and a mechanism for monitoring of its performance. The Ombudsman of Hong Kong/ Secretary of the Board invited comments of the members on selection of project proposals to be funded from the proposed ADB grant. The President informed the members that a copy of the final project document will be circulated to the members. He also, suggested that since the proposed RETA may be approved in April/May, 2008, while the next Board meeting is to be held in 2009, therefore, key decisions on project implementation could be taken through circulation.

Decision:

Since a number of details relating to project implementation needed to be tied up with the ADB, a three member committee consisting of Vice President, Secretary and a member from the AOA Secretariat was constituted to further work out, if necessary, details with the ADB.

Agenda Item No. 7

Review of the Bye-Laws and Code of Conduct of the AOA.

During the 9th meeting of the Board of Directors of the Asian Ombudsman Association, held on 25th April, 2007, at Hanoi, Vietnam, some members of the Board observed certain discrepancies and inconsistencies in the Bye-Laws and the Code of Conduct of Business of the Asian Ombudsman Association. On the basis of proposals received from the members and input from the AOA Secretariat, proposed amendments were placed before the Board.

Decision:

It was decided by the Board to recommend to the General Assembly that the amendments in Bye Laws and Code of Conduct of the Association be approved.

The audit report prepared by M/s WA Associate (Pvt) Limited, for the period 1st January to 31st December, 2007, was placed before the Board of Directors.

Decision:

The Board approved the placement of the Audit Report before the General Assembly.

Agenda Item No. 11

Approval of AOA Annual Budget 2008.

The Executive Secretary briefed the Board about the financial proposal for the AOA annual budget 2008. The Standing Commissioner, Republic of Korea, was of the view that preference may be given to further improvement of the website, while the Vice President AOA, was of the view that optimal use of the AOA library will be ensured if member countries benefit from the same. The Chief Ombudsman, Thailand, was of the view that efforts must be made to obtain material from regions other than Asia for the benefit of the members. The representative from Japan raised the issue of translation of the material supplied by different countries into English. The Secretary of the Board suggested that proper cataloguing of the material may be done. The President AOA, informed the Board that cataloguing of the collected material is already underway and that the website had recently been improved substantially and further improvements will be made with the passage of time. He also agreed with the suggestion that the AOA library may be equipped with additional literature on relevant subjects. Regarding the translation of material, members were of the view that material in any language can be supplied to the print library with its synopsis in English.

Decision:

The Board approved the following financial proposals for the AOA budget 2008:

(in US$)

Sr. No.	Items	Budget proposal 2008

Agenda Item No. 12

11th AOA Conference at Bangkok, Thailand in 2009.

The Ombudsman of Thailand informed the Board that they are planning to host the Conference in November 2009. Members will be informed about the exact dates within next two months to allow them enough time to plan their schedules.

2. On the theme and format of the Conference, the Head of the General Inspection Organization Republic of Iran, proposed that country reports and research papers may be presented in the Conference.

Decisions:

- i) AOA Secretariat may invite the proposals from members about the theme and sub-themes of the 11th Conference.
- ii) Executive Committee will select the theme, sub-themes and decide about the format of the conference from the proposals received.

Agenda Item No. 13

Investment and Use of AOA Funds.

In order to make better use of the available funds having a balance of US$153,073/-, on 1st of January 2008, the Secretariat proposed that:

- i) Provision be made for recurrent expenditures for three years, using actual expenditures of 2007, as a benchmark, with 10% increase per year.
- ii) The balance funds be:
 - a) made available for members to use on specific initiatives; and
 - b) invested in a suitable instrument with maximum returns.
- iii) It was also proposed that:
 - a) some amount may be earmarked for provision to the members for specific purposes, However, the issue of determining the criteria of allocation was required to be decided by the Board; and
 - b) eligibility of new institutions may be based on quality and nature of proposal, as the main criteria.

Decisions:

- i) It was decided to await outcome of the final decision on the funding of Knowledge Management Resource Centre from Asian Development Bank.
- ii) CD$10,000 allotted by IOI to Asian Region may be used by the members separately. The Chairman, Anti Corruption and Civil Rights Commission, Republic of Korea, in his capacity as the Regional Vice President of the IOI may , finalize and share with the Board, the proposed criteria and mechanism for use of the CD$10,000 regional grant.

- iii) Funds can also be used for research proposal from members.
- iv) AOA Secretariat will invite research proposals from members and prepare a working paper for distribution of funds. Decision of the members may be obtained through circulation.

Agenda Item No. 14

Campaign to Increase AOA Membership

The AOA Secretariat proposed to launch a special membership drive to reach out to potential members by sending a membership invitation pack that would include printed material such as a brochure on AOA highlighting the benefits of membership, the AOA News Bulletin, and an application form. For this purpose, a separate provision of funds has been made in the annual budget proposal for 2008.

Decisions:

The proposal was approved.

Agenda Item No. 16

Change in Nomenclature and Functions of the Office of the Ombudsman, Republic of Korea.

It was observed that the nomenclature and functions of the Office of the Ombudsman, Republic of Korea has been changed. It has been re-designated as Anti Corruption and Civil Rights Commission, headed by a Chairman.

2. Standing Commissioner, Anti Corruption and Civil Rights Commission, Republic of Korea, briefed the Board about the change and informed that jurisdiction and purview of the institution has been widened without curtailing the power it was enjoying previously.

3. The Board deliberated whether this change is to be taken in the spirit of Bye-Law 7(6) as successor of the previous institution or under Bye-Law 5(5) treating the change as a new institution.

Decisions:

- i) While the Board agreed to the viewpoint of the Standing Commissioner, Anti Corruption and Civil Rights Commission, Republic of Korea, he was however, requested to forward the law/ rules under which the institution was re-designated.
- ii) The Executive Committee of the Board consisting of the President, the Vice President and the Secretary was given the authority to examine and decide about the status of Anti Corruption and Civil Rights Commission, Republic of Korea, in the light of new law/ rules under which the institution was re-designated. Their report will be placed before the General Assembly in its next session.

While concluding the last session of the meeting of the Board of Directors, the President informed that Ms. Alice Yuen-Ying Tai, Ombudsman, Hong Kong, SAR China, will be retiring before the next Board meeting, therefore, the members will be deprived of her valuable input in the affairs of the AOA. The Board placed on record the contribution and efforts of Ms. Alice Yuen-Ying Tai, in strengthening and promotion of the charters of the AOA. Her close interaction with the members of the Association and the benefits derived from her experience and intellectual input in strengthening the organization were highly appreciated. The members presented their compliments to Ms. Alice Yuen-Ying Tai, on her accomplishments both as Secretary of the Board and as Ombudsman of Hong Kong. It was noted that but for the efforts of Ms. Alice Yuen-Ying Tai, the Association would have not achieved the place of eminence in the international arena.

2. The Board also placed on record its thanks and appreciation for the arrangements and hospitality of the Islamic Republic of Iran and especially to Mr. Justice Muhammad Niazi, President, General Inspection Organization, the deputies, staff of the office and all ranks of his department.
